

Peter Love

5 Wilberton Road, Toronto, ON M4V 1Z2 • peter@loveenergyconsultants.com

- > Seeking board position where my knowledge and background would be most valuable
- > Business-minded, proven, respected leader in climate, energy, and sustainability policy issues
- > Broad board experience: 7 corporate boards, 10 non-profit boards, and 14 advisory boards – Chair of 10

Business-Minded

- Co-founded and managed two successful private energy service companies
- Serves on one energy technology company board and two corporate advisory boards
- Completed MBA (Dean's list) and ICD.D designation

Proven

- Co-founded private energy service companies are financial successes
- One has influenced purchase of over 50 million energy efficient products by more than 1.6 million customers
- Other has become the largest certifier of energy efficient homes in Canada
- While serving as Chief Energy Conservation Officer, Ontario exceeded energy conservation targets and became a North American leader
- Helped newly formed Energy Efficiency Alberta engage more than 10% population in programs in first year, installing 13 million products
- On team at Pollution Probe that developed the 3 R's (Reduce, Reuse, Recycle) in early 1970's

Respected

- Appointed to 14 advisory boards, Chair of three
- Appointed Ontario's first Chief Energy Conservation Officer to lead provincial activities related to electricity conservation
- Received distinguished Clean50 award for leadership in energy policy
- Appointed among first Visiting Distinguished Research Fellow at Ryerson University's Centre for Urban Energy

Climate/Energy/Sustainability Leader

- More than 35 years' experience in leadership positions in five for profit, five not for profit, two government agencies and two academic organizations
- Author of two books, contributor to two other books as well as 58 other published reports and articles
- Invited to participate in over 600 events over four years as Ontario's Chief Energy Conservation Officer

Experience in Government Agencies

- Coordinated investment in eight companies on behalf of provincial venture capital corporation
- Served as Chief Energy Conservation Officer of Ontario
- On founding board of Energy Efficiency Alberta

Background

Current Employment

- > Love Energy Consultants (2009-present) and Adjunct Professor, York University (2010-present)

Past Related Employment

- > Energy Services Association of Canada (2009-17), Ontario Power Authority (2005-09), Summerhill Group (1995-2005), Canadian Energy Efficiency Alliance (1996-2005), EnerQuality Corporation (1998-2005), IDEA Corporation (1983-87), Middleton Associates (1975-83) and Pollution Probe (1972-75)

Current Boards

- > CMC Research Initiatives, Lightspark, Efficiency Capital, Energy Efficiency Alberta, International Solar Solutions, Ontario Climate Consortium (Chair), Toronto 2030 District (Chair), Fortis BC Energy Efficiency and Conservation Advisory Group, Rethink Sustainability Initiatives, and Royal Canadian Institute for Science (past Chair)

Education

- ICD.D - Institute of Corporate Directors – Directors Education Program 2009
- MBA, University of Toronto 1983 (Dean's List 1981/82)
- B.A. (Arts and Science), University of Toronto 1971

Awards

- Clean50 Honouree 2014
- Sustainable Buildings Canada "Lifetime Achievement Award" 2007
- EnerQuality Corporation "Hall of Fame" 2005
- MVP Thursday Thunder old-timers tournament hockey team – 1992 & 1995
- Non-Smokers' Rights Association "Honorary Lifetime Membership" 1982

Publications

(available at www.loveenergyconsultants.com)

- Fundamentals of Energy Efficiency. Love Energy Consultants, 2018
- The Garbage Book. Energy, Mines & Resources Canada, 1975
- Chapter in Canadian Energy Efficiency Outlook: A National Effort for Tackling Climate Change, 2018.
- Chapter on Canada in World ESCO Outlook, 2012
- 18 published reports and 40 articles